Social Media Checklist for College Students

To maintain a professional digital footprint while balancing student life, follow these essential guidelines:

DO's (Best Practices)	DON'Ts (Risks to Avoid)
DO use a professional profile picture and your real name on platforms like LinkedIn.	DON'T post offensive, discriminatory, or highly controversial content that could alert recruiters.
DO enable "Private" mode on personal accounts (Instagram/Snapchat) to control who sees your life.	DON'T share your location in real-time or post pictures of your ID cards/Hall tickets.
DO tag your university and professional organizations in your achievements and certificates.	DON'T use unprofessional or "cool" aliases (e.g., killer_boy_99) for academic or job platforms.
DO engage with industry leaders and alumni from VIT Bhopal by commenting thoughtfully on their posts.	DON'T participate in "internet wars" or use foul language in the comments section of public posts.
DO conduct a "Digital Audit" every 6 months to delete old, embarrassing, or irrelevant posts.	DON'T click on suspicious links or "free giveaway" ads sent via WhatsApp or Instagram DMs.
